The Chosen

We are the chosen. In each family there is one who seems called to find the ancestors. To put flesh on their bones and make them live again. To tell the family story and to feel that somehow they know and approve. Doing genealogy is not a cold gathering of facts but, instead, breathing life into all who have gone before. We are the story tellers of the tribe. All tribes have one. We have been called, as it were, by our genes. Those who have gone before cry out to us: Tell our story. So, we do. In finding them, we somehow find ourselves. How many graves have I stood before now and cried? I have lost count. How many times have I told the ancestors, "You have a wonderful family; you would be proud of us.". How many times have I walked up to a grave and felt somehow there was love there for me? I cannot say. It goes beyond just documenting facts. It goes to who I am, and why I do the things I do.

Featurette Section ~ Postcards

Featurettes 1-4 are linked to family members only. Each featurette uses identical coding, differentiated only by its number. The circled arrow at the bottom of the text section is used as the link indicator.

Hints for a well-styled page

For the best appearance, use images that are all 270px x 270px. Resize your images if needed. This free online program is available if you don't currently have an image editor: <https://www.webresizer.com/>. It works well, otherwise, use your favorite image editor.

Ensure your text remains brief. Aim to keep the text section a similar length on each postcard. Since you already have a link to the ancestor, extensive text is not necessary.

Individual Postcard Coding

- Featurette image: The image used for the postcard box.
- Featurette name: The name of the person, place, event, etc.
- Featurette first line: A short line of text, e.g., “They Married in 2020
- Featurette Link: The desired URL, which may direct to the person or any other page. For example, you can use the “getperson” URL from your browser to send visitors to the person’s profile.
- The arrow at the bottom right of the box is the link.

Postcard

The arrow is used for the link.

The Bones of My Bones

This is the caption for your image

The bones here are bones of my bone and flesh of my flesh. It goes to doing something about it. It goes to pride in what our ancestors were able to accomplish. How they contributed to what we are today. It goes to respecting their hardships and losses, their never giving in or giving up, their resoluteness to go on and build a life for their family. It goes to deep pride that the fathers fought and some died to make and keep us a nation. It goes to a deep and immense understanding that they were doing it for us. It is of equal pride and love that our mothers struggled to give us birth, without them we could not exist, and so we love each one, as far back as we can reach. That we might be born who we are. That we might remember them. So we do. With love and caring and scribing each fact of their existence, because we are they and they are the sum of who we are. So, as a scribe called, I tell the story of my family. It is up to that one called in the next generation to answer the call and take my place in the long line of family storytellers. That is why I do my family genealogy, and that is what calls those young and old to step up and restore the memory or greet those who we had never known before. 'It goes to a deep and immense understanding that they were doing it for us.
